

Dear Supporters:

Just a brief note to let you know that Marcie and I and the kids are alive and well, and the work is going well.

Since my last “real” report, things have continued to progress in a seemingly linear fashion: Visitors visit the congregation—some are local brethren “looking for a sound congregation” and asking for studies; in our classes we march through both Old and New Testaments; important personal counseling bears wonderful and wonderfully encouraging fruit; our weekly personal study with Suzana encourages Marcie and me and is informative for her—she reads well ahead, soaks up what we cover together, and always wants more (currently going through Matthew); last but not least, a young man—my nephew, who is 15 years old—committed his life to Christ!

You know that this is only the tip of the iceberg of the daily, weekly, and monthly work. If you would like to know more, please get ahold of me and ask! For now, please know that work is being done.

Brotherly,
Lee
